From the Pastor. . .

It's time to get into the game! As your pastor, I am constantly overwhelmed with ministry needs that I cannot possibly meet. Right now, we have at least five members of our church that need a ride to church worship services and we don't have any volunteers to pick them up with the bus. We need more volunteers in all of our children's ministry programs from GAs and RAs to small groups on Sunday nights. We have a need for adult small group leaders on Sunday nights and always need chaperones for all of our youth activities. We will be working on starting an ongoing visitation program and we will need faithful people to step up in this area, too. Ask the Lord and let him lead you to a place to get into the game of following Him because this church needs you!

Student Ministries

It's my favorite time of the year, football season! I want to congratulate the team on winning their first game Friday night, and good luck this Thur. I want to remind everyone that after every home game, there will be a 5th quarter event. The next one will be at our church, and we want to be praying that God uses that event to reach many unchurched youth in the community. Although it rained most of the day, we had a blast at Enfuego this past weekend. It was a great time of worship, and David Nasser brought the Word in a mighty way. Many people made decisions for Christ at Enfuego, and that was a true blessing to see.

♥♥ Thank You ♥♥

To Bro. Scott and all of our wonderful friends of Fayette First Baptist Church.

We most humbly thank you for your kindness and generosity during this period of time while our home is being repaired.

We are so very appreciative of your letting us live in your house. It has certainly been a blessing and you have been such an example of God's love and an example of what living in this great town of Fayette is all about.

Thank you again and may God bless you and your Church.
